

Town Council Covers Much Business at Regular Meet

Town Council covered a varied agenda at its regular meeting on Thursday, April 27th.

Following received no petitions or recommendations, Council gave three readings to Bylaw 569 which authorizes changes to the Zoning By-law.

The Finance Chairman, Public Works Chairman, Town Engineer and Town Administrator were appointed to examine bids and award sales of excess municipal articles.

Council agreed that the deposit received from Johnson Realty should be returned as no decision had been made on the zoning change on the lot under consideration.

Johnson Realty & Insurance representative, Erle Newman, attended at meeting of Council at 1:45 p.m. to re-submit plans to develop Pt. NE 5-49-7-W.5 into country residential subdivision. The first alternative he put forward was to subdivide to one acre lots and service with water and sewer from town facilities.

The second alternative was to subdivide in 2 1/2 or 3 acres lots with each owner of property servicing his own lot with water and sewer.

A discussion ensued relative to the need of such a development and how effective the larger lot sizes would prove. There was some consideration as to how soon such lots would be taken up.

Grant McEwan to Tackle Local Walk

The annual Miles for Millions March is scheduled for June 3rd this year, with Lieutenant-Governor Grant McEwan planning to take part in the 25-mile route.

A feature of the walk will be a contest between teams representing the various service clubs.

It will be run on a point system, with three points per mile walked, three members per team, and $1.00 per point. A "trophy" will be presented to the team with the most points.

Members of the Miles For Millions committee felt that there would be less confusion on the morning of the walk if registration was held on the Friday night. They felt that if this method was used, more walkers would be able to start when the gun goes off.

The route has been tentatively set as the same as last year's, where marchers begin at the Centennial Arena, go west and head towards Easyford, back towards Rocky Rapids, and home to Drayton Valley through that popular coulee.

Drayton Valley's Community Band will play for the walkers for an hour before starting time.

Swim Club Meet

A general meeting for all those interested in the Neptune Swimming Club will be held in the Amoco Hall at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, May 15th. Parents and swimmers are asked to attend.

Dr. and Mrs. Maclure

FAREWELL SUPPER FOR THE MACLURES

The Anglican congregation invite all friends of Dr. and Mrs. Hugh Maclure to an inter-church pot-luck supper at the Scout Hall on Wednesday, May 10th at 6:30 p.m. This is planned as an informal family evening and it is hoped that there will be a great response for all or part of the evening.

Since their returning from working in Uganda and Sierra Leone, Dr. and Mrs. Maclure have travelled extensively in the U.S.A. and Hawaii sharing their experiences with churches of many denominations. They have spoken of the warmth with which they have been received, and have been much encouraged for the work they hope to do in the future.

Council Tries To Hold Line

Town Council, as a committee of the whole, met Thursday evening May 4th to consider the year's budget.

Members went through the town's financial picture, step by step, in a marathon session that lasted until after midnight.

Considerable thought and discussion went into paring a number of items to hold the mill rate at last year's figure of 80 mills. A final decision is expected to come at an early meeting of the Council.

N.H.L. Star Guest Speaker Saturday

The Drayton Valley Minor Hockey Association announced this week that Greg Polis is a first round draft choice, last year for Pittsburgh Penguins, will be the featured speaker at the Minor Hockey Wind-up Saturday evening.

Polis, a 21 year old graduate of Estevan Bruins Junior Hockey Club of the W.C.H.L., comes from Dapp, Alberta in the Westlock district. He is one of the few junior players who have made a successful jump from junior hockey to the National Hockey League.

This year Polis lived up to the expectations of Penguin's management by scoring 30 goals and doubling the point production of his rookie year. He led the Penguins in the stretch drive for a playoff berth by scoring in four consecutive games and being chosen the Hockey News Western Division Player of the Week, in the final week of the season.

Polis returns to Westlock for the summer and this year is conducting a hockey school beginning in July.

Remember Minor Hockey Banquet on Saturday, May 13 at the Civic Centre. Tickets are available at the Recreation office, Drayton Valley Hotel and Dunham's Sports Shop. Boys have to return their sweaters to their coaches before a ticket will be issued.

Drayton Annual A.A. Round-up Well Attended

An enthusiastic audience of "A.A." members and their friends attended Drayton Valley's popular "A.A." Roundup held in the Legion Hall Saturday and Sunday.

Visitors from the three western provinces including one from Toronto heard Mayor Lloyd McLean's welcoming address in which he outlined some of the economic factors of the oil industry in relationship to Drayton Valley. He pointed to the outlay of civic funds used for recreation and stated that he was of the opinion the money was better spent on recreation than on rehabilitation and that hopefully less would be required for rehabilitation.

He also explained his concern and awareness of the drug problem as it exists in this community.

The evening banquet was chaired by Noel D. and his headtable guests were Mayor Lloyd and Mrs. McLean, Dr. Eustace, Rev. Robin Oldring and Mrs. Oldring, Constable Bob Swift and Mrs. Swift, Mrs. Noel D., Thera T. and June T. (Al-Anon) Alex G., A. A. representative, Matt A. from Calgary was the main speaker.

Dr. Eustace told of his work in England with boys from broken homes and he related the high degree of delinquency in families with an alcoholic problem. He stated that alcoholism was related also to a major degree in the health problems in Drayton Valley. He agreed that alcoholism was a major Canadian health problem.

Rev. Robin Oldring spoke on the necessity of learning to understand the alcoholic and the severe loneliness and tragic consequence of alcoholism.

He threw out a challenge to social agencies and others concerned including the public at large, to learn to accept and assist man with all his faults rather than categorize him or her as people to shun.

Constable Swift spoke of the difficulty in understanding the alcoholic and alcoholism. He spoke honestly of his lack of knowledge of alcoholism and won the audience to his side when he said "I hope in the not too distant future a study of the problem with alcoholism will be a part of the R.C.M.P. basic training course." He also spoke of the incidence of alcohol to accidents and crime.

Matt N. spoke on the necessity of carrying the message, not the alcoholic, and told of necessity for the alcoholic to educate himself to a new way of life.

Spiritual values that had reached a breakdown must be renewed and he suggested the need for kindling the spark of spirituality that lies within everyone.

He stressed the need for time in the process of recovery.

Following the banquet the Ladies, Drayton Valley Entertainers, put on a show of shows and put everyone in a happy mood.

The audience was most appreciative of their entertainment, particularly as to the skits showing in comedy manner the funny aspects of the alcoholic problem.

Assisted by some clever lighting, and music they were a real hit and it is to be hoped the same group will be available next year.

A dance followed, and a happy group said good-night, after a final late night meeting, chaired by Wayne H. of Drayton Valley.

Sunday morning dawned bright and early with the usual hearty breakfast sponsored by the Evansburg Group. Always a popular feature, the breakfast drew a large crowd and the visitors from Edmonton poured in.

Meetings were held throughout the morning and in the afternoon the public meeting was held at 2:00 p.m. followed by a farewell buffet put on by the Al-Anon ladies of Drayton Valley.

Chairmen of the Sunday meetings were Ira H. and Lu H.

Gallons of coffee were provided by Ira H., Charley R., Bill T., Ise B. A tired but happy and enlightened crowd said "So-long for now and see you next year."

Town Council Meeting

The fact that town expenses incurred for street lighting, streets and sidewalks and also as police and fire protection must be studied.

Council in considering the merits of large three acre lots had it pointed out that the servicing to such would be less economical than if subdivided into one acres. General opinion seemed to indicate acceptance of one acre lots providing good, progressive building standards are maintained and there was sufficient expectation for development of these lots in a reasonable period of time.

Both alternatives were defeated when Council members voted on the proposal.

Mr. Howard Gebhart attended the meeting to seek permission to park his gravel truck on his property in a residential area.

Council discussed the matter at some length and appeared divided on the question of trucks in residential areas. The matter will be held in abeyance while a study is made that will include information from comparable towns on their handling of truck parking.

At the request of West Valley Properties Ltd. Council agreed to rezone lots 11 to 19, Block 104, and lots 1 to 9 in Block 106, from R1A to R1B. It was pointed out that R1B lots are now getting scarce but there are ample R1A's. Council was satisfied that the standard would not be affected by the zoning change.

Councillor Maurice R. McCullagh of the County of Parkland No. 31 attended this meeting to discuss the verbal agreement regarding the commitment made by the former Improvement District to pick up one third of the deficit annually of the Centennial Arena operation.

He pointed out that the people of the western sector accept the fact that they are liable to one third of the deficit. In return the County requests that the town sign over one third of the equity in the Centennial Arena to the County of Parkland No. 31, to recognize the share put up by the people of the old Improvement District Nos. 77 and 78 - now County of Parkland.

No immediate action was taken by council which will advise County Council of receipt of the information and take the proposal under consideration.

Council authorized approval of the Lions Club request to hold a "Beer Fest" in the Centennial Civic Centre during the Evergreen Rodeo.

Council was advised of the serious state of the town water supply and authorized immediate institution of rationing. All wells that can provide even small amounts of water will be tied into the system to help carry the community through the summer and until the river supply is available this fall.

Council expressed no opposition to a Rotary Club request for authorization to make improvements to the treed area and children's playground in the Rotary Park.

A meeting between members of Council and representatives of the Edmonton Nursing Home Board was reported. The Edmonton group indicated interest in the town's suggestion for a nursing home located here and recommended that factual information on degree of need be obtained from medical practitioners as a first step.

Report From Parliament Hill

By Allen Sulatycky, M.P.

Many constituents have written to me regarding Bill C-7, an Act to amend the Explosives Act.

These amendments have been interpreted by many to be a restriction on the lawful use of guns, rifles and ammunition for hunting and sporting purposes.

I would be firmly opposed to any legislation having that effect, and I would make every effort to prevent the passage of such an Act.

Responding to representations made by myself and others, however, the Minister of Energy, Mines and Resources has issued a clear statement of the intentions of the Bill in question.

The Hon. Donald S. Macdonald stated that Bill C-7, now before the House of Commons, does not suggest "any changes that will significantly affect handloaders, shooters, gun clubs, hunters or any other sporting group."

Much of the controversy surrounding Bill C-7 was caused by the presence of the word ammunition in the definition of explosives. This has prompted many sporting groups to conclude that all types of ammunition will be restricted if Bill C-7 is passed.

"This is simply not the case", said Mr. Macdonald. "The definition of explosives contained in Bill C-7 is identical to that appearing in the present Explosives Act except for a general modernization of language and terms. In both definitions, the words 'ammunition of all descriptions' are used. The new Bill places no more restriction on consumer-type explosives than exists under present legislation."

"Bill C-7", said Mr. Macdonald, "is designed to bring our legislation in line with new developments in explosives technology and the new uses found for this technology since the Act was last amended in 1956".

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

By Kevin Peterson of The Calgary Herald

Ombudsman George McClellan last week reopened talk of the need for penal reform in the province when his annual report to the Legislature gave special attention to complaints he has received from prisoners.

Mr. McClellan, a former RCMP Commissioner now in the final year of a first five-year term as ombudsman, suggested ignorance and misunderstanding of regulations by senior jail officials has led to unacceptable conditions in provincial institutions.

In the extracts of the cases he has investigated over the year, the ombudsman included a number which involved complaints from prisoners in the province's jails. Included were one from an inmate kept on bread and water in solitary confinement for nine days when regulations only allow three; another from an epileptic who was slapped, had his hair cut and forcibly showered; and another from one prisoner who spent six extra days in jail because of a clerical error.

"There appears to be some lack of consistency in the interpretation of regulations governing the correctional institutions particularly in disciplinary matters by senior correctional officers," the report said.

"The restraint and discipline required of a correctional officer is great. Excessive use of authority cannot be excused."

When asked in the House next day if a special investigation is planned of Fort Saskatchewan jail in light of the ombudsman's comments, Attorney-General Merv Leitch responded negatively but added that he takes a "serious view" on such situations.

"Any excessive use of force in either one of two ways -- by way of mistreatment of the prisoner or by imposing a punishment that is not authorized under the regulations -- is something

...They Take So
Long to Die

Conducting a unrelenting fight for legislation to ban inhumane methods of trapping are members of the Canadian Association for Humane Trapping. Their uphill fight appears now to be gaining greater public recognition as more and more Canadians become increasingly aware of the wildlife resources around us.

The C.A.H.T. does not seek abolition of trapping but simply the replacing of the cruel leg-hold trap with an humane instant-kill trap. By way of a trading program, trappers are being introduced to the instant-kill trap by C.A.H.T., to experience personally the efficiency of the trap compared to the leg-hold which allows an animal to chew or twist its foot off and escape, probably to die a painful death.

Legislation banning inhumane trapping will come about only when there is sufficient public outcry. C.A.H.T suggests concerned individuals write their M.L.A. or M.P. or if further information is desired, write: C.A.H.T., Alberta Branch, Box 9, Site 13, Calgary, Alberta.

I take a very serious view of," he said.

Mr. McClellan also said in his report that the 'warden's court' used in investigate offences committed within the jails has led to several complaints. In one case in the report, Mr. McClellan stated "the deputy warden had laid the charge himself, heard the case himself, found the complainant guilty and sentenced him to segregation."

The ombudsman also renewed his previous pleas for more information on his office to be made available to prisoners. Mr. McClellan would like notices posted in jails, cells and police stations notifying prisoners of their right to contact the ombudsman instead of having to rely on a grapevine to carry the word that his services are available.

Also in the report, Mr. McClellan suggests workmen's compensation benefits should be extended to cover prisoners who are forced to perform work "under pain of punishment if they refuse." Present department insurance covering inmates injured while working is inadequate, he said.

Mr. McClellan's report said he has investigated 774 new complaints between November 1, 1970 and October 30, 1971. A total of 2,943 complaints have been received since the ombudsman's office was set up in 1967. Any Albertan can obtain the services of the ombudsman by writing to his office in Edmonton if they have a complaint concerning a provincial department and have followed all available channels of appeal.

Mr. McClellan's term ends in August this year, however the Conservative government has indicated they will likely propose he be given another term.

Reeve's Report

By Les Miller, Reeve,
County of Parkland

I must apologize for the delay in this Reeve's Report. However, I will try to get back to the regular monthly basis.

The annual ratepayer's meeting was a disappointment in numbers attending. It hardly seems worth the effort when so few attend. The morning session had as many County staff as ratepayers. However, there was some fruitful discussion and a number of points of concern were cleared up. It is amazing how rumors and incorrect information can spread. Facts just never seem to travel as fast.

Some questions arose at a meeting in Clymont Hall regarding assessment of domestic water lines. I now have a letter from Mr. E. L. O'Neil, Chief Provincial Assessor, in this regard. It reads in part:

"I believe the matter is clearly set forth in Section 25 of The Municipal Taxation Act, R.S.A. 1970. Section 25(1) reads: 'The following property is exempt from assessment by a municipality, namely: and Sub-section 26 reads: 'a water works supply, distribution system and metering facilities used for the purpose of providing a water supply service to the consumers of a municipality when owned and operated by an individual or body corporate.'"

Clearly then, a domestic water line will not be assessed. However, our Chief Assessor, Mr. Ken King, indicates that on an acreage the land assessment may possibly be raised if the property is served by a water line. This would happen if in the opinion of the assessor the presence of the line increases the sale value of the property. I would think this is certainly a possibility.

Because of the opposition in the area, the proposed nuisance ground in N.W. 26-51-27-4 was not proceeded with. Council has made every effort to provide this service in that area, and I think now will wait for the people in the area to find a site when they want one.

Council finally passed the most recently proposed no-shooting by-laws. The substance of the by-laws read in part:

Firstly -- "The discharge of a gun or other firearm upon, from or over occupied land by any person other than an occupant of those lands, without first obtaining the permission in writing of an occupant of those lands as hereinafter provided, is prohibited in all that portion of the County lying east of the Fifth Meridian.

Permission in writing shall contain the following: The names of those individuals to whom the permission is granted; The date on which the permission is granted and the length of time for which their permission is valid; The legal description of the occupied land for which the permission is granted; and the signature of an occupant of the occupied land."

Secondly -- "No person shall discharge a gun or other firearm from, upon or over a road within the County." NOTE: This means only developed roads and not road allowances not in use.

These by-laws have met with fairly good response even from persons who originally opposed the first draft of the by-law. I am pleased to report that on Sunday, April 30 I attended the executive meeting of the Alberta Fish & Game Association to review the by-laws with them. We had a most fruitful discussion and I was pleased to find such a large percentage of these people supporting our efforts to try and curb the gun vandalism problem. They realize we have a problem and are prepared to try and help us solve it. They stated that the irresponsible person with a gun must be stopped or their privilege to hunt will eventually disappear. Because of a few bad letters and comments, we thought the Fish and Game Association were a real arrogant group who had no concern for the landowners. This I realize now was wrong and I commend the Fish & Game people for the good work they have done and are doing, and for their sincere concern.

We have added two new Police Constables to bring our force back to seven men. They are Peter Dziwenko who is in charge of the Wabamun Detachment and Robert Elias at Stony Plain. Both have considerable experience in police work and can step right into their jobs. You will now be seeing more patrolling in all parts of the County.

Once again I would like to re-iterate that if anyone has any questions they want answered or any matter they would like me to explain in these reports, just drop me a note to the County Office and I will try and cover it in the next month's report.

LIBRARY NEWS

In this week's news we will report on some of the books for the pre-schoolers to Junior High crowd.

"Mr. Gumpy's Outing" Mr. Gumpy went for a holiday ride in his boat with his friends, the children, the goat, the rabbit, the chickens, the sheep, the pig, the dog and the cat. A squabble broke out among the guests - but you must see the story for yourselves. Beautiful illustrations.

"The Little Old Woman Who Used Her Head" has a good deal more text and will probably appeal to the eight year old group.

"Pippi Long Stocking" has been a favorite for years. Now "Pippi Goes on Board" offers further adventures of the lively Pippi. "Down Down the Mountain" is the story of Hetty and her brother Hank who live in the Blue Ridge Mountains. "The Runaway Bunny" by Margaret Wise Brown has beautiful coloured illustrations and a charming story of a little rabbit who ran away. "Cowboys-What Do They Do?" is a I Can Read Book which can be handled with ease by a grade one child at this time of year. "The Lucky Little Porcupine" is another book with gorgeous coloured illustrations. Text is short but lively-good for reading aloud by a parent who doesn't want too long a story. These and many more new books will be on the new book shelf on Tuesday.

Perhaps the most interesting book in the Junior High section is Catherine Marshall's "Julie's Heritage". Julie, the heroine of the book, is a black girl who finds herself deserted by her white friends of many years standing when they finish grade school and begin High School. Julie is utterly unprepared for this turn of events and this is what the story is all about.

Next week this column will carry a report on the newly arrived books for adults.

HART CANTELON

Dear Mr. Cantelon:

Could you please help me? We live in a low-rental apartment and under the terms of our agreement, the wife is not allowed to work. My husband make a small salary and we have a diabetic daughter. To help out a bit, I do day work for one day a week, working for five hours that day. I have started feeling guilty about this and lately this feeling of guilt is getting worse all the time. With this guilt feeling, I find that I am losing my confidence. At the present time, my husband has been unemployed from time to time, and this feeling has hit me so badly. What should I do? Signed: Feeling Guilty

Dear Feeling Guilty:

In the area of social assistance such as low-rental-housing, rules are made to cover most of the cases in question. But there are exceptions that cannot be covered by the rules. As you have described your situation, you come under the special group for which some exception should be made. You likely are afraid to bring this problem to the management of the low-rental project lest you are required to move. If you honestly feel that the rule of wives not working brings a real hardship in your case, then, relate your problem to someone who will be willing to go-to-bat for you and do it in a way in which your housing will not be jeopardized. For example, you might write one of the City Aldermen and ask him to keep your name confidential. You could contact any clergyman of any church nearest your home, and he would be willing to help, and present your case to the proper authorities. Moreover you should seek out some counselling help so that you might be able to deal with these guilt feelings and handle them better in the future. Remember you are not necessarily doing something morally wrong. You may be doing something for the sake of justice in our society.

Dear Mr. Cantelon:

Could you tell me what is your policy with regard to the use of letters in your column and the personal answering of letters which are written to you. What about anonymous letters? How do you deal with them?

Signed: Curious

Dear Curious:

No letter is ever used in the column if the writer specifically requests it not be used. However, I would point out that when a letter is used the name of the writer, the place, or any detail that might identify the writer is never used. I appreciate the privilege of using the problem, because this enables the column to help many others who need help and who don't know where to turn. Any letter that is sent anonymously, and is really seeking help, the column carries and encourages the person to write again giving the identity of the writer, so a personal letter can be written that person and some follow-up offered. If the anonymous letter is critical and the person hasn't had the courage to identify himself, then, the letter is simply ignored. Incidentally, if the letter is used in the column, a copy of the reply is sent personally to the writer as well.

Roll up your sleeve to save a life...

"The way you've been playing, it couldn't possibly bring any more bad luck!"

SUPERINTENDENT'S DESK

WORKSHOP HELD FOR TEACHERS

Several teachers from the County of Parkland attended a Workshop on individualized learning practices on Saturday, April 29 at Spruce Grove. Dr. David Tucker, Professor of Teacher Education at the University of Alberta presented ideas related to learning for enrichment, non-graded schools, and students' needs. A film on primary learning centres in British Schools and slides on outdoor education were also shown. The workshop was chaired by Mr. N. McDowell, Director of Guidance and was sponsored by the County School Committee as a professional development activity.

STUDENTS RECEIVE RECOGNITION

Congratulations are extended to the students in the Spruce Grove Junior High School chorus and to their teacher, Mr. Murray Hodges, for winning the top award at the recent Kiwanis Music Festival held at the Northern Alberta Jubilee Auditorium. The Spruce Grove Junior High School chorus received the highest mark of 85% in their class of competition. The Junior High School chorus from St. Pius X in Edmonton placed second with a mark of 83%.

Congratulations are also in order for Robert Smith of Frank Maddock High School in Drayton Valley for receiving the district prize from the Canadian Mathematical Congress. The universities in Alberta and the Provincial Mathematics Council of the A.T.A. helped to sponsor the award. Robert Smith received the award as a result of a special regional competition in March of this year. He was selected the best candidate in the region which includes the Bonnyville, Yellowhead, Sturgeon, Westlock, Barrhead, Lac Ste. Anne, St. Paul, Smoky Lake and Thorhild School systems. Robert's teacher is Mr. Allan Day of Drayton Valley.

REPORT ON EDUCATION TELEVISION

A recent report on Educational Television in County Schools indicates that the County of Parkland has a very large investment in television equipment and delivery systems. The County owns over $26,000.00 in television monitors, video-recorders, camera kits and video-tapes. An additional $14,772.00 has been invested in television distribution systems at the schools. The report states that the greatest use of television is at the elementary school level where a variety of M.E.-E.T.A. programs are being used. Junior and Senior High Schools employ programs on Channel 3 and 5 in addition to Channel 11. Exploring the World of Science is one of the most popular programs at the elementary level, while high schools use such special programs as Tuesday Night, Here Comes the 70's and National Geographic Specials. According to the preliminary reports of the Worth Commission, educational television will play an important role in the educational delivery system of the future.

Whitby News

Mrs. Rosie Dusterhoft had to spend awhile in the Drayton Valley Hospital, but she is home now.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pipke have moved back to the community after spending part of the winter in town.

Joe and Carol Kelly, Bernice and Bud Sullivan, Paul and Elsie Dusterhoft, Earl and Irene Siebels, Ed, David and Marvin all took in the supper and dance at the Ramona Hall with Joe Kelly being a lucky ticket holder.

The square dances at Whitby Hall had bad luck on Saturday. The power went off so they had no lights. It was very nice to see visitors come. Hope they come again.

Whitby Community had their monthly meeting last Sunday. It was decided to install an oil furnace this summer. Don't forget the bingo on May 11th.

Herman and Wanda Dusterhoft and family are invited to Darleen Leskie's wedding in Edmonton on May 27.

Christien and Jackie Worden brought grandpa Siebels gifts and a birthday cake. Many more birthdays, Earl.

We had a clean-up night at Whitby last Wednesday. A nice turn-out.

Red Sox to Play Whips Here Sunday

Local fastball fans are in for an unusual treat this weekend as the Sun Life Red Sox will visit Drayton Valley for an exhibition double header with the Whips. Games are slated for Saturday, May 13th at 2:00 p.m. and 3:30 p.m. in Lion's Park.

The Red Sox, well-known in Western Canada as top-notch fastball aces, will field much the same team that played Men's Senior "A" Fastball in Edmonton last year. The lineup for the Whips has changed slightly due to the mobility of players, but most of the favorites from the previous season's league winners will be cavorting on the field.

For the fan who comes to observe colorful players much is in store. Rebel fans who admired the dexterity of Art Assman and Sam Belcourt on ice will now see their antics on a different turf. The Whips also have some heavy bats. Chances are that a few balls might wend their way to the oilfield beyond the park. Not to mention Sun Life Vance Billey, batting champion and Les Barker, the long-ball hitter, will be supported by a slick infield combination. Of local interest also, is Kelly Braitenbach of the Red Sox pitching squad. With the change of pitchers, Kelly will likely be chucking for the hometown team.

Coaches Bill Tainsch and Dennis Riske have agreed to exchange batteries for this series. It all promises to be entertaining and exciting. Sun Life boasts some of the finest players in Alberta. The Whips are determined not to be outdone and no doubt would appreciate good fan support. A grand way to initiate fastball season.

A silver collection will be taken during the game.

Berrymoor News

Marcel Lietz spent a couple of days in hospital but is at home and back at school again.

Ruth Berry is in Drayton Valley Hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

A shower for bride-elect, Miss Gwen Laughlin, is planned for the evening of Friday, May 12th at the home of Harvey and Linda Van Embler.

Miss Donna Haight has completed her term at the University of Alberta and is at the home of her parents. She plans to be here for the summer months.

The ladies' softball team had planned to have their first practice of the season on the grounds at Berrymoor Community Centre on May 3, but were rained out. They are going to give it another try on the evening of Monday, May 8th. They hope to be able to practice each Monday and Wednesday thereafter and anyone interested is welcome to attend.

LEGISLATIVE REPORT

RUSTY ZANDER, M.L.A.

Progress on the estimates seems to go very slowly as we go into them, item by item. Health and Social Development has been under constant fire for the past days.

We can really understand this because of the huge sums of monies provided in this department. The largest sum of over $70 million is provided to direct assistance of those on social allowance, and this is only part of the expenditure; the unknown amounts spent by our cities, towns and all other municipalities in the province as their share of social assistance, must be in total well over $100 million.

It may be a better approach to the whole matter of social assistance that jobs be provided for those who are able and capable of working in gainful employment for themselves and their families, and others who are unable to work because of lengthy illness or physical disabilities be given a fair enough allowance to provide a decent standard of living in the community.

Preventative social services should be given top priority and more funds used to prevent and help people, either by family counselling or other means, before disaster strikes. The social problem in a community is everybody's problem, and sooner or later we may have to be involved, either as fathers or mothers or as teenagers or others; we may just have to face the facts, and I say let's get involved now because later may be too late.

This service is similar to the preventative health services which came into being in the early 50's, and due to this service, we have, for all purposes, nearly eliminated childhood diseases, and I am sure we can do the same in the Preventative Social Services field.

The Lesser Slave Lake allocations came under considerable fire, because this program is a cost-sharing program with the Federal Government, and it would appear from comments in the Legislature that under this program, which is designed to help our native people, very few dollars actually get through to the people whom we are indeed trying to help. A new assessment of this program may have to be undertaken this year to see just who is benefitting from these funds.

It would seem at the present time the Assembly is getting down to tackle the business of the House and the business at hand; may now realize that the time is now moving well into spring and good progress is being made in dealing with the passage of Bills.

Various Legislative Committees of the House are having problems finding time to complete their various tasks and make their recommendations back to the Legislature before adjournment. We now find these Committees meeting early morning, or evening, in order not to hold up certain Acts and Bills from receiving Royal Assent.

SUB-MITS

FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

This week let's introduce another two teachers from the staff. Mrs. Mary Read teaches grade four. Her early education was obtained in Alix. Then she attended Red Deer Junior College and the University of Alberta. Mrs. Read enjoys curling, sewing and reading. The past several summers and winters she has also spent studying. The Reads live near Lodgepole.

Another teacher on our staff is Mrs. Emily Letweniuk, grade six teacher. She grew up on a homestead in the Seba Beach area and attended a country school there, call Volga. After High School at Tomahawk she took her teacher's training at the U. of A. After many summer schools and winter courses she received her B. Ed. in 1968. Mrs. Letweniuk enjoys reading. The Letweniuk's have two children.

Children soon get to know their teachers as well as their parents. During an Art class recently a boy came up to his teacher and said, "May I have a compliment please?" Then towards the end of the period he came up with the work almost finished and said, "May I have another compliment?"

W.I. Members Hear Report On E.M.O. Crash Course

The Drayton Valley Branch of the Women's Institute met on April 24th with seven members and one visitor present.

Mrs. Burrows reported on an Emergency Measures Crash Course that she attended in Edson. A simulated disaster in the High School lab was followed through from first aid in the school itself to admission to the hospital. Mrs. Burrows, co-ordinator for E.M.O. in Drayton Valley, announced there will be a simulated disaster in Drayton Valley and a Home Nursing Course is to be offered at some later date.

Thanks to Mr. Harold Hammerlindl who repaired our wheel chair. Mrs. Hammerlindl and Mrs. Deby will be responsible for buying cookbooks to be offered for prizes in Home Economics classes in Drayton Valley schools.

A letter was received from the Rural Education and Development Association sponsored by Unifarm and Co-operating Associations asking that the W.I. give publicity and encouragement to young people to attend the 1972 Co-operative Youth Seminars at the Gold Eye Lake Centre. Any young adult between the ages of 16 and 20 who has not previously attended a Co-operative Youth Seminar is eligible.

A donation of thirty five dollars was made to send one camper to the Mental Health Camp.

The Annual Plant and Bake Sale will be held at Block's Store on Saturday, May 27th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Proceeds from this sale go towards meeting expenses of the Flower Show.

Mrs. Lingard was guest speaker. Mrs. Lingard, a native of Nova Scotia, spoke most entertainingly of her native province.

Drayton Valley W.I. will have Wabamun W.I. members as guests at the May meeting.

A total of $1,251.82 was raised this year. This figure was the highest amount raised so far since the Cancer Society began to canvass our area. The 1969 figure was doubled this year, which shows the steady rise in donations over the last 4 years and the realization of the people of Drayton Valley and District that "Cancer can be beaten".

The Canadian Cancer Society and the Drayton Valley Campaign Committee would like to thank all those who canvassed on their behalf and those who donated this year to make this campaign a great success.

TOWN OF DRAYTON VALLEY

EMERGENCY WATER USE NOTICE

The Council earnestly solicits your aid in maintaining a balance between the supply and demand of our communal water supply. The Town is presently in the throes of constructing a Water Treatment Plant on the bank of the North Saskatchewan River. The pipe line has been installed and the river intake portion has been completed. However until the plant itself has been completed we must continue to rely on the water wells as our source. During the latter years these wells have been gradually becoming less adequate - both from the point of view of not being able to produce as much water and more and more water being required because of growth and expansion of the town - until each year the supply becomes less and less able to meet the demand.

It is pretty well assured that this will be the last summer of rationing, as the new plant should be in operation by September. In the meantime we as householders are asked to curtail our water use to insure that everyone gets a fair share and there will still be some in reserve for fire safety measures. If all use water reasonably and in accord with the rationing program directive below, there should be no real hardship for anyone.

LAWN, GARDEN & TREE WATERING SCHEDULE

PERMITTED IN THE TOWN OF DRAYTON VALLEY

NORTH SIDE OF 50th AVENUE

Mondays - Wednesdays - Fridays

Water Between 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. ONLY

SOUTH SIDE OF 50th AVENUE

Tuesdays - Thursdays - Saturdays

Water Between 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. ONLY

ALL THE TOWN - SUNDAYS

Water Between 7:00 p.m. and 9:00 p.m. ONLY

Rationing of water may be instituted by a Municipal Corporation when the necessity of same becomes apparent. Our water supply situation is now such that it is deemed necessary to institute the program of rationing as outlined above. Anyone contravening this rationing directive will be liable to prosecution.

The Mayor and Council are confident that the water users in Drayton Valley will react favorably to this emergency measure and co-operate completely.

St. Anthony's Setting For Spring Ceremony

On Sunday, April 2nd, St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Church was the setting for the Easter wedding of Patricia Mae, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hoge of Violet Grove, and Ronald James, fourth son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Cameron of Rocky Rapids.

The picture of happiness, the bride looked lovely as she walked down the aisle on the arm of her father. For her gown, she chose an empire-waist peau d'elegance floor-length dress with a lace bodice and matching floor-length lace train. Her veil flowing to her shoulders completed her beautiful ensemble. She carried red roses and wore a delicate silver necklace and earring set, a gift from the groom.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Jim Ball and Miss Gail Meston, friends of the bride, both of Edmonton, attired in matching gowns of springlike yellow organza, and wearing black velvet chokers adorned with gold roses, a gift from the bride. The bridesmaids were escorted by the best men, Mr. Tom Cameron, brother of the groom, and Mr. Terry Jevne, friend of the groom. The ushers for this beautiful single ring ceremony were Mr. Jim Ball of Edmonton, a friend of the groom, and another brother of the groom, Mr. Ken Cameron.

Mothers of the bride and groom looked lovely. The bride's mother selected a two-piece mauve jersey ensemble for the church ceremony and a floor-length blue gown trimmed with white lace for evening, while the groom's mother wore a two-piece ensemble of pink lace. Both wore corsages of white roses.

The reception was held in the Elks Hall, with Mr. Chris Frank officiating as Master of Ceremonies. A wedding supper was enjoyed by over one hundred relatives and friends, as was the dance that followed.

The toast to the bride was proposed by Stefan Hoge, brother of the bride.

Best wishes came from Australia, Kingston, Ontario and Vancouver as well as from several points in Alberta, while relatives and friends hailed from Red Deer, Wildwood, Edmonton and the surrounding districts.

The happy couple left for a short honeymoon, this being due to both are attending SAIT in Calgary where they will make their home. The bride wore a purple two-piece pant-suit with white accessories as a going-away outfit.

Calorie Counters Attend Stettler Achievement Day

Ten members of Drayton Valley's "Canadian Coast to Coast Calorie Counters", attended a District Achievement Day (D.A.D.) in Stettler on April 29th.

Drayton Valley's "Jolly Giants" belong to District 8 of 5C's which includes Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta.

Delores McKenzie of the Jolly Giants was runner-up to the District Queen and National winner in her group, and Inez Kutcher was a national winner in her group.

The Queen from District 8, Maxine Yowney of Athabasca, will travel to Toronto for the National Convention May 25 - 27.

The highlight of the day was the attendance of the National President, Jean Flatt.

Other district winners from Drayton Valley were Dawn Carrothers and Rose Buzak who were runner-up in their groups.

The purpose of D.A.D. is to honor members who have lost weight and reached their goals. These girls are the District Stars. Dawn Carrothers and Dorothy McKinlay received a spoon and corsage for their efforts.

The Shining Stars are honored for maintaining their desired weight from year to year.

In January 1971 the Drayton Valley 5C's were ready to fold up the club because of lack of members. Instead they decided to hold a trial campaign to increase the membership. By September 15th they had recruited nine members and by January 31, 1972 Jolly Giants had 30 paid-up members. This new interest in the club helped win third place in total weight loss per member in the district and fourth nationally.

At present the club's project is a Diet Hints and Cook Book. With the sale of this book they hope to raise enough money to send a representative to the 1973 National Convention in Vancouver.

If anyone is interested in losing weight, please come down to Town Hall any Wednesday night at 8:00 p.m.

If a group of ladies would like to start a 5C's club in Entwistle, Evansburg, Wildwood, Warburg or Thorsby please write to Mrs. Lu Taylor at Box 68, Drayton Valley or go to the meetings.

New Guinea Subject For Missionary Lecture

Missionary Herbert Schaan will present an illustrated lecture on his work in New Guinea at the Emmaus Lutheran Church on Tuesday, May 16th at 8:00 p.m.

Pastor Schaan, a native of Vernon, B. C., has served the New Guinea Mission for five years and will soon be returning for his second term.

New Guinea is one of the more fascinating and fastest growing of the Lutheran Mission fields.

Lunch will be served following the program. Everyone is welcome.

The Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Emmaus Lutheran Church has many projects that the members are involved in.

One of the projects is collecting stamps of all sorts. Containers to hold stamps are being made up and will be taken to many businesses in town who would also like to help with the project. These stamps are packaged and sold, the money in turn is sent to Missionaries in foreign countries.

Any groups or individuals who would be interested in helping with this project would be most welcome.

Another undertaking which the league is already being helped with is the saving of soap. The hotel and motels in town have been good enough to save the pieces of soap that are sometimes only used once by customers. Any size soap is saved and sent to agencies which pack it and ship to refugees in foreign countries.

Please contact Mrs. Dale Mohr 542-4532 for further information.

Ross Perkins Joins Hockey Instructors

Mr. Doug Messier, Director of the Summer International Hockey School to be held in Drayton Valley from July 29th to August 11th, announced this week the appointment of Ross Perkins of the Fort Worth Wings as an instructor.

Perkins is a veteran professional with a solid hockey background. Of his play this season, the Hockey News, said: "one of the reasons the Fort Worth Wings were the 'Cinderella' team of the Central League coming down the stretch, was the inspirational leadership provided by veteran Ross Perkins."

"The Wings' team captain personally racked up 14 points in the final four Fort Worth games to steer them into a third place finish and give Perkins a piece of the C.H.L. individual scoring title along with Tulsa's Jean Payette. Each had 97 points."

Mr. Messier noted that applications are now being accepted for the summer school and would be processed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Further information is available from Summer International Hockey School, Box

5753, Edmonton T6C 4T2 or from Mr. Tom Hutton, Drayton Valley. 542-3165.

Book Brings Back Memories

Victory in Europe Day, or VE Day, May 8th, brought back memories for many local residents.

One of them was Mr. Al-len Ganske of Drayton Valley who dropped into the Western Review office with his wartime ration book. The book, No. 6, was the last to be issued and Canadians began looking toward an end to wartime restrictions.

Menu-juggling to stretch scarce commodities will be well remembered by those who went through the 1939-45 years.

Come home

in a Datsun

Before Datsun came to Canada, we got to know the country pretty well. We studied the driving conditions, we talked to the people. We found out what cars in Canada have to be. They have to be economical, dependable; they have to handle well, winter or summer. We found out that people want cars that can be serviced anywhere they drive in Canada... and that's why we have 270 dealers and huge parts warehouses right across the country. We asked, and now we know. And that's how we can build Datsuns that feel right at home here... cars you can feel right at home in.

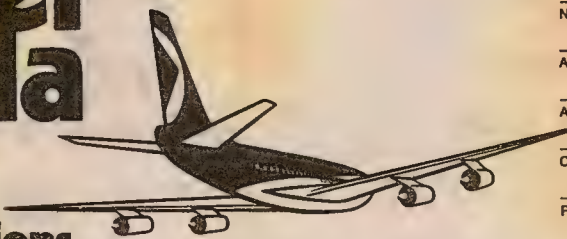

Standard or automatic... come home in a Datsun.

Evansburg School Institutes Language-Experience Program

by LORRAINE BERKLEY

Although the language-experience approach to reading instruction has been utilized in various experimented stages since about 1948, its advantages as a reading program have not become apparent until recently. As a result, the Evansview Elementary School in Evansburg, instituted the program only this year.

According to Principal Roger Kangas, the results have been tremendous. Although the school's equipment is limited as yet, each of the over 200 students gets some time with each facet of the program.

The language-experience approach brings reading, listening, writing, speaking, and viewing skills together in one program. Mr. Kangas explained that schools from grades one to 12 are beginning to use this program rather than the basic reading program.

He said the Evansview school gives the primary classes more time with the program, so that students can become acquainted with the learning procedure as soon as they enter school.

It is felt by researchers of the program that the development of language skills makes possible the continuing use of the child's own experience - background and thinking as he grows toward reading maturity.

In other words, the language experience approach uses the language and thinking of individual children as the basis for skill development.

Mr. Kangas explained the emphasis is changed from 'reading' to 'communicating'. "Previously, children were never really taught to talk or discuss," he said. "They were always taught to read."

But, nowadays, parents listen and view more than they read, Mr. Kangas said.

"We hope to develop the attitude to discuss -- to say what they think and feel -- to think about a subject and then get up and say what they feel," he continued.

He felt that if the children can learn this at the grade one level, then by the time they reach the upper levels, they will be ready for critical analysis.

From the first day in school each child is encouraged to share his ideas with others through the use of words and pictures. The teacher records the child's stories on his pictures. Each child then "reads" his recorded story to his classmates.

With such opportunities, children begin to develop writing vocabularies and are able, in an amazingly short period of time, to write their own stories independently. Using devices such as word ladders, picture dictionaries and room labels, children rapidly extend their writing vocabularies.

Mr. Kangas explained that the students learn all aspects of writing together, instead of separating them into different classes, such as punctuation and grammar and spelling.

The use of all kinds of reading material is necessary for the child to get a balanced program of reading, but the use of self-expression activities is just as necessary for the child to develop his thinking power. By combining the two emphases, children live and learn in an environment of real language experiences where there is no attempt to make clear-cut distinctions between reading, writing, speaking, listening and viewing.

To assist parents in understanding the learning procedure their children are now using, Mr. Kangas has prepared a video tape on the language-experience program in Evansview school. He will show the film to parents in June during preschooler registration.

He hopes that this will help parents to prepare their children during the summer for grade one and will explain to the parents the differences between basic reader and language-experience programs.

Using the basic reader, students learn to associate what they have read with what they are saying.

Children are given a reading assignment which they later go over with their teacher.

Visual aids such as picture cards are used to help students form their own stories.

The teacher records the story as the students make it up.

Children learn to listen, rather than just hear, and discuss what they have listened to.

WID YOU KNOW....?

Eggs are the cheapest way of obtaining animal protein on the market today. Grade 'A' Large are now on sale for about 59¢ a dozen. One dozen Grade 'A' Large eggs weigh at least 24 ounces. Eggs then cost about 40¢ per pound.

Eggs are reaching the kitchen fresher today than was frequently the case many years ago. For that reason customers are noticing the Chalazae - those two little white rope-like extensions on either side of the egg yolk. The chalazae is made of the same material as the egg white and the little casing enclosing the yolk. The fresher the egg, the more prominent the chalazae. The only time it needs removing is when making egg nogs or soft custard because the texture is usually firmer than the rest of the egg. However, in normal cooking it simply disappears.

The egg white is made up of mostly protein and contains no fat. If you are on a fat restricted diet (e.g. following a heart attack) and are advised to cut down on eggs the advice relates to the egg yolk. Dishes calling for whole eggs can be made using egg whites, allowing two whites for each whole egg called for. Baked custards, soft custard, sauces thickened chiefly with egg, some cookies, cakes and many desserts may be made with egg white.

Eggs deteriorate rapidly at temperatures over 60 degrees F. Up-to-date stores now refrigerate the eggs they offer for sale. A top quality egg held at 50 degrees F. all the way from producer to consumer will usually maintain top quality for up to 10 days.

Eggs displayed for sale at retail outlets are supposed to have the grade mark clearly indicated on the carton or on a tag if displayed in an open container. A Grade 'A' is judged by candling -- a fairly rounded yolk surrounded by thick white. The shell must be clean and normal in shape with a sound shell. They are sold in five sizes ranging from extra large (each egg must weigh at least 2 1/4 ozs.) to pee-wee (each egg must weigh at least 1 1/2 ozs.). Grade 'B' eggs are reasonably clear -- can be slightly abnormal in shape with sound shells. Yolks are slightly flattened and enlarged and surrounding albumen is less firm than Grade 'A'. Each egg weighs at least 1 3/4 ounces.

The colour of the egg shell is due to the breed of hen laying it and in no way influences the nutritional value of the egg. Most eggs today are produced by hens that lay white or cream coloured shells.

If you want to have hard cooked eggs peel easily, use the ones which you have had in the refrigerator the longest. The fresher the eggs, the harder it is to peel.

For more ideas for using eggs, contact my office for a copy of the bulletin "Cooking Alberta's Eggs".

Using a good straw spreader at harvest time and planting crops that are fairly tolerant to rapeseed residue toxicity are the best ways to avoid reduced yields in cereal crops that are planted on the same land the following year.

Dr. J. Horricks, supervisor of plant pathology with the Alberta department of agriculture, reports that both cereal and oilseed crops that are grown on land that was seeded to rape the previous year can be damaged by a toxic material that leaches into the soil from the rapeseed residue. This toxin causes lack of vigor, stunted growth and low yields in affected plants. Maturity is usually delayed and the stand is slightly reduced. Most damage is confined to plants in soil that was below the windrows of the rapeseed crop.

Dr. Horricks points out that the residue from rapeseed crops rarely causes any problem if it is spread evenly on the field at harvest time. Despite the fact that the residue toxin is fairly stable, it does not seem to adversely affect cereal crops grown on the same land two years later.

Although seedlings from all crops tested for their reaction to rapeseed residue toxicity were stunted, those from some types of crops were found to be more tolerant than others. Varieties within each type of cereal crop also varied in their susceptibility to the toxin.

Fairly Resistant Crops (listed in decreasing order of resistance) - Fall Rye -

Petkus, Sangaste, Cougar, Frontier; Malting Barley - Olli, Gateway, Paragon, Bonanza, Conquest; Feed Barley - Palliser, Galt, Jubilee; Oats - Pen dek, Glen, Harmon, Rodney; Spring Wheat - Saunders, Neepawa; and Spring Rye - Prolific.

Very Susceptible Crops -- Rape, Mustard, Flax; Wheat - Durum, Soft White, Feed; Barley - Herta, Fergus; Oats - Eagle, Sioux; and Spring Wheat - Thatcher, Cypress, Park, Chinook, Manitou.

Dr. Horricks reports that experiments now in progress should shed some light on the best methods of managing rapeseed residues with farm equipment, and also indicate the nature of the toxin and lines of rapeseed plants with a low toxicity content.

Students of the H.W. Pickup Junior High School, formerly Drayton Valley Junior High School have achieved excellent results on grade nine provincial departmental examinations.

A study of the graph showing grade nine provincial exam results this year shows that 47.1% of the grade nine students received A's or B's on their provincial exams. This exceeds the provincial average in these groups by over 12%.

A study of the D and E sections of the graph indicates that comparatively few of the students received low marks. Whereas 10% of the students in the province fail less than 5% of students in H. W. Pickup Junior High School failed.

We are most proud of the outstanding academic performance of the young citizens of Drayton Valley.

The C.W.L. are sponsoring one patient from Canadian Mental Health Association to one week's summer camp at Lake Isle. They also need volunteer help at the camp -- anyone 18 years and over.

If you have any camping equipment to donate or lend, such as blankets, sleeping bags, fishing gear, life jackets, men or women's bathing suits, the camp would appreciate the use of them.

The next meeting will be on Monday, June 5th. It will be a "Fun and Game" night.

Please bring a guest. Please reserve by May 29th. Phone Mrs. Lil Hook at 542-3450 or Mrs. Judy Skappak at 542-3865.

The auto salesman announced to his son that there would soon be a new baby in the house. "I suppose," said the little fellow, "that means I'll have to be traded in."

Tomahawk News

There will be an appreciation night for Mr. Overbo on May 20, supper will be from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. A program from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. and then dancing 'till 1:00 a.m. If any previous students, friends or neighbors wish to attend this memorable occasion, you must have tickets before May 6th. Each ticket is $2.00 and you can get them from Gloria Jouan or France Gilbert.

Get well wishes go to Ken McGinn who underwent surgery on April 27th at the Drayton Valley Hospital.

Seven members were present at the Tomahawk Ladies Aid meeting on April 27th at Alma Schadeck's. After studying the first chapter in Acts they had a short business meeting. Thanks go to Velda Jouan and Edna Goertz for cleaning the church in April. Wednesday, May 10th has been set for spring cleaning of the church. Any of the ladies who wish to help are welcome. Ladies who have quilt blocks are asked, please to turn them in.

Sweetie Pie

"How about being our guinea pig?"

The Library Board held its last whist drive of the season on Friday, April 28th. Ten tables of players were present. Joyce Engstrom and Adele Stienke won the traveling prizes. First prize winners were Audrey Greib and Mr. Overbo. Consolation winners were Ellen Shaw and Ivan Dusterhoft. Congratulations to Lenora Welk and Henry Troutt who each received a cheque of $10.00 for having the top scores for the season.

The Tomahawk and District Club held a sports banquet on April 21st in the Tomahawk Hall. A good crowd attended even with an unwelcome snow storm raging outside. A delicious supper was served by the ladies of the community.

Gordon Reich, Master of Ceremonies, got the program underway by asking the coaches to give a few words on their season of coaching.

Darwin Park, quest speaker, gave a short but very interesting talk on "What kind of coaching did you do?" Then Mr. Park presented the Tomahawk football ladies team with Parkland trophy which they won last year, also with three pennants, one for winning first place, one for the western division and winners of the eastern division. Congratulations ladies.

He also presented the Tomahawk Bantam baseball team with two pennants and a trophy for being winners of the western division.

The evening ended with twelve games of bingo. Coaches are still needed for the year's ball teams so be an interested parent and share in this responsibility.

Insect Appreciation

OTTAWA -- Insects are getting a raw deal, says Dr. Helen Salkeld of the Canada Agriculture Entomology Research Institute in Ottawa.

"All most people are interested in is how to kill them," she says. "Insects are a beautiful, intricate part of life on earth. They deserve to be appreciated."

The energetic, outspoken Dr. Salkeld didn't exactly set out to study insects -- it just sort of happened through a combination of professional training and experience with Canada Agriculture.

"Now that we're polluting our land and waters we're beginning to pay insects some respect."

"One of the best ways to measure water pollution is to look at the insects. Change the temperature of a pool or river one degree, and you won't find the same insects that were there before."

"The same is true with chemical pollution. Insects are an environmental indicator," says Dr. Salkeld.

Canada Agriculture's research branch has pioneered the type of insect control management Dr. Salkeld talks about. It's called integrated control and it combines many factors, including chemical and natural controls.

Listening to Dr. Salkeld, one somehow vaguely remembers something about if it weren't for the insects we'd have no beautiful flowers, no fruits, no crops.

The lowly insect has a place after all.

Drayton Valley drama students who competed in the recent Zone II Drama Festival in Barrhead will be performing for the town Thursday, June 1 at 8:00 p.m.; Saturday, June 3 at 8:00 p.m.; and Sunday, June 4 at 2.30 p.m.

MARSH WORLD

by ANGUS SHORTT
Ducks Unlimited

SPIKE RUSH AND SLOUGH GRASS

A - Spike Rushes (Elcocharis sp.) common plants bordering marshes and sloughs in wet mud but also grow abundantly in shallow water. Characterized by tapering leafless stem which terminates in a single spike. The seeds are tiny but together with the tubers and rootstock are valuable duck food. B - Slough Grass (Beckmannia syzigachne) common to wetlands bordering marshes, often in association with sedge. The slender stem is tipped with a series of spikes growing close to the stalk. Each consists of compact one-sided spikelets. Not an important duck food but seeds are eaten. Provides nesting cover.
